With a happy big white cake that was decorated by Grammy and his two big sisters. I am so overwhelmed by the pictures (Grammy has an amazing eye) and can't wait to have Ditmo down the stairs in his new clothes to see what his reaction is. I am so excited because he is growing up. We are due for another visit to the eye doctor in a few weeks because he has been dropping into and out of my peripheral vision on the left and right. We had a great weekend and some laughs at Grammys birthday party. It was fun to watch Ditmo make faces on our faces over the years. Ditmo liked the cake decorated with bright colors and the highlight of the evening was when the huge marshmallow that had the candles done on it was lit up and then blown out. After that, Ditmo was really excited to have a few pieces. He also finished his first (and hopefully not last) milkshake. He loved it and it was on the table for the next day. He never wants to eat breakfast again. The family is heading back to Ditmo's doctors office soon to make another appointment. He still can't seem to see on his left eye well enough to get an appointment. Ditmo has had an eye exam (yes, someone actually cares that Ditmo has had an eye exam). His results at this appointment included an increase in his vision. He can now see the tv, enjoy a book, and reach
