Astectech LLC expresses its gratitude and appreciation to you for your professionalism, high-quality work, flexibility of thinking and deep knowledge in the field of best practices in management and development. The introduction of the software package "1C: Management of a construction organization" in CJSC "Agropromtorg" helped to provide a reliable information system, build a system for planning, sales and enterprise resource management. To date, we have completed the first stage of the implementation of the software package and plan to continue using it to improve management efficiency and optimize business processes, as well as to expand functionality. We recommend the 1C: Project Organization Management software package as an effective tool for automating management and budgeting in Russian organizations in the construction and design industries.
