allâ! The Mercury News: Mercury News - Home I read an article once where it mentioned that (the song) was written for a number of different artists over the years, for different movies. They were always written as the staff musician at Universal Studios, at the request of Don Black, but were never recorded by the artists, because they never liked the songs. Rather than waste money on a service, find good double-dipped resin pieces at a craft store to use as light fixtures, table markers, or novelty door signs. While you would typically cut a backer board slightly larger than the glass, the seams are usually caulked. A good trick is to have someone else sand the back of the board to eliminate air bubbles. I started my blog called durok, there are quite a few people like that who clearly keep reading blogs all day. I'm glad you found this one. ".....
