The club is affiliated to the Lancashire County Football Association and is currently members of the. History The club was established in 1887 as a rugby union club and entered into the Lancashire and Yorkshire Senior Cup in the 1888–89 season. They folded in 1894 after only competing in the cup for the first four seasons. They were re-established in 1908 and joined Division Two of the Manchester League. After four seasons in the league they joined Division Two South in 1913. The club were Division Two champions in 1913–14, but were demoted to Division Three East at the end of the season. They won Division Three East two consecutive seasons from 1915 to 1916, and were promoted back to Division Two South at the end of the 1919–20 season. In 1921–22 Salford City joined Division Two North of the Manchester League. The club were Manchester League champions in 1921–22 and runners-up in 1923–24, but were again demoted at the end of the season after finishing bottom of Division Two South. They returned to Division Two North the following season, now renamed Division Two, but were immediately demoted to Division Three East at the end of the season. They won Division Three East in 1925–26, and were promoted back to Division Two at the end of the season. In 1926–27 they won the Manchester League Division Two title and the Lancashire Challenge Cup. When the Lancashire Combination was formed as a new divisional structure in 1929, the club applied to join Division Three North, but were instead placed in Division Two of the new league. Although the club were promoted to Division One at the end of the 1932–33 season, they immediately dropped back to Division Two in 1933–34, after finishing bottom of Division One. The club then joined Division Two South in 1934–35, which they were placed in until the end of the 1934–35 season, when they were placed in the Lancashire Combination's Division Two North
